The screenshot shows a modal dialog titled "Upload file" with a close button (X) in the top right corner. The dialog has three tabs: "Upload local file" (selected), "Input text", and "Cloud upload". Below the tabs is a light blue area with the text "Drag or select a file from your device". Underneath, there is a "Name" field containing the text "Test". Below that is an "Attachment" field containing the text "test EN.docx". At the bottom left, there is a checkbox labeled "Pre-submission" which is currently unchecked. At the bottom right, there is a blue button with a document icon and the text "Send and view". The background of the dialog is a blurred screenshot of a web page with the text "StrikePlagiarism Dashboard" and "Test 01" visible.

Nach der Einreichung wird der Status Ihres Dokuments geändert.

Within academia, plagiarism by students, professors, or researchers is considered academic dishonesty or academic fraud, and offenders are subject to academic censure, up to and including expulsion. Some institutions use plagiarism detection software to uncover potential plagiarism and to deter students from plagiarizing. Some universities address the issue of academic integrity by providing students with thorough orientations, toyota required writing courses, and clearly articulated honor codes. Indeed, there is a virtually uniform understanding among college students that plagiarism is wrong. "Nevertheless, each year students are brought to their institutions' disciplinary boards on charges that they have misused sources and try to cheat in their schoolwork." [23]

However, the practice of plagiarizing by use of sufficient word substitutions to exclude detection software, a known as rogeting, has rapidly evolved as students and unethical academics seek to stay ahead of detection software. [24]
